Product Designer with 10 years of experience across brand, digital product and emerging technology. I build brand systems that survive contact with product (identity, guidelines, design systems, campaigns and the asset infrastructure behind them) and have grown audiences and engagement across fintech, marketplace, learning and community platforms. I bring AI and automation into production to make brand work scale without losing craft.

EXPERIENCE

Product Design Lead · WSA

Sep 2023 – Present

- Owned the strategy and optimization of WSA's digital ecosystem (website, social, newsletters), driving +169% website traffic and significant audience growth across all channels over two years.
- Co-founded Summit, an event and community app built for WSA, since spun out as an independent product now serving clients unrelated to WSA. 60% attendee adoption, continues getting engagement up to two months after events.
- Introduced personalized regional newsletters through segmentation of a 20K-subscriber newsletter audience, boosting open rates by 38%.

Product Designer · 5Mins

Sep 2022 – Sep 2023

- Designed gamification systems and social interaction features (user flows, interaction patterns and UI components) for a learning platform that increased 7-day retention by 18%.
- Migrated (Sketch to Figma) and maintained design system, overseeing implementation across content, design and engineering teams.

Growth Product Designer · SwissBorg

6-month contract · Mar 2022 – Sep 2022

- Designed and ran experiments via social campaigns to identify high-converting services, contributing to 25% lower acquisition costs for prioritized offerings.
- Created an ESG monitoring interface for cryptocurrencies, helping users make investments that were better aligned with their values.

UI & Digital Designer · Ria Money Transfer

Sep 2020 – Mar 2022

- Designed Ria's storytelling through social media campaigns, including financial literacy campaign that grew Ria's following by 200%+ (IG) and 70%+ (LI) in under a year.
- Collaborated with HR and Product Marketing to craft a new employer brand identity positioning Ria as a FinTech leader; defined KPIs monitored through LinkedIn interaction data.
- Designed product illustrations and micro-animations for Ria's mobile app to guide users through key flows and improve interface comprehension.
- Unified brand guidelines and created a DAM system used across developer, designer, comms, marketing, and brick-and-mortar teams.

Creative Director · Service Club

6-month contract · Mar 2020 – Sep 2020

- Supervised social media campaigns designed to get couriers into the system, increasing Instagram following by 400% and LinkedIn by 75%, and growing the number of couriers in the system by 600%.
- Created courses on Service Club Academy that helped navigate Spanish work visas, helping turn the couriers' biggest blocker into the product's main acquisition channel.

Product Designer · Saturno Design

Sep 2016 – Aug 2019

- Established and oversaw implementation of new Saturno brand guidelines.
- Created 13 design packages including website, email, and proposal document templates establishing visual hierarchy, information architecture, and component standards for each. Clients included K&L Gates, Barclay Damon, and FordHarrison.
- Created a marketing campaign for LensBaby, reframing their products as videography tools to enter a new and growing market.

Product Strategy, Entrepreneurship & Venture Leadership

Sep 2013 – Present

- Co-founded Yaupon Rose, building website and brand, growing Instagram from 0 to 1,200 followers and scaling the team from 3 to 15.
- Designed and developed websites and brand identities for: colectivo.ie, gomde.eu, kremsegg-university.at (university website that includes an AI chatbot that allows the website to edit itself if prompted), memoria-colonial.org (University of Bristol education project), and mind-distillery.com.
- Created a generative AI social media campaign of "super couriers" doing stunts on surfboards, snowboards, horses, etc. for Service Club. Videos achieved 150% higher clickthrough rate than Service Club's average of that year.
